

There is a Difference

In make up: Most baking powders contain ammonia or alum. Cleveland's does not, not a particle; it is composed of pure cream of tartar and bi-carbonate of soda, with a little flour to keep the strength, nothing else. That is why Cleveland's is the most wholesome.

In strength: A rounded teaspoonful of Cleveland's Baking Powder does better work than a heaping teaspoonful of any other; a large saving on a year's bakings. That is why Cleveland's leavens most.

In results: With most baking powders cake is coarse grained, gets dry and "husky;" with Cleveland's, it is fine grained, keeps moist and fresh. That is why Cleveland's leavens best.

Orange Lands!

GREAT BARGAINS

AT SOUTH RIVERSIDE

The finest Orange and Lemon Lands are found in this flourishing colony and the location is unsurpassed.

Great Abundance of Water.

Another pipe line is about to be constructed, bringing additional lands under irrigation.

Prices Extraordinarily Low.

Water is sold with the land. No bonds; no uncertainty as to quantity or price of water. Water conveyed in pipes to the lands. The lands are adapted to the culture of all fruits common in Southern California.

Here is the place for Homes and Investment.

Orange Heights

Is a new and attractive subdivision of a portion of the high mesa land of South Riverside Colony, and being frostless and not subject to injurious winds, offers special advantages for the cultivation of the

LEMON.

The best authorities in Southern California commend these lands for the raising of lemons. One syndicate is arranging to plant 1000 acres in Oranges and Lemons, one-half each.

Aside from its wonderful advantages as a fruit-producing colony, South Riverside is an important manufacturing point. The Pacific Clay Manufacturing Company's vitrified sewer and water-pipe works—the largest on this coast—are located here. Also the Porphyry Paving Company, the Standard Fertilizing Company, and two pottery works. This is the shipping point for the famous Temescal tin mine plant. A company is now being formed to work on a large scale the finest cement rock found in the United States. This latter company will probably employ 200 or more men. The material is at hand for additional manufactures.

The Town of South Riverside

Contains numerous business houses, and there are churches, hotels, a bank and all other improvements necessary to make a thriving town.

Come and see our new tract before purchasing elsewhere, taking the Riverside and San Bernardino train via Orange, leaving Los Angeles at 11 a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m. For full particulars call on L. T. GRAVES, agent at Los Angeles, Bryson-Bonebrake Block; or address

NOTHING! CAN CHECK IT. CHECK WHAT?

THE SALE OF LANDS AT EAST WHITTIER! The breeze which they called a gentle zephyr that shook 'em up at Pasadena didn't hurt East Whittier. The frost that so seriously afflicted nearly the whole of Southern California did not touch East Whittier. The cyclone that is whizzing about the Reform School, although it is close by, don't bother East Whittier. The talk about war with Chile doesn't chill East Whittier as the big guns of the Emmeralds or the Capt. Pratt, when she comes, won't reach East Whittier.

The big rains the prophets say are coming won't hurt East Whittier, as she is above 'em all, snug against the foothills warm and sunny, her young lemon trees in bloom; her 3-year orange trees loaded with golden fruit, and her sales going merrily on to the tune of first come, first served.

company wished to keep in harmony with the city; they wanted no litigation with the city and wanted to get along as easily as possible and with as little friction as possible.

Councilman Rees moved that the suit be dismissed on the railroad company paying the costs and the City Attorney stated was nominal.

Councilman McGarry thought the railroad company should pay the expenses of raising the Buena Vista street bridge in consideration of the city waiving the claim for damages.

After some general debate a vote was taken, and Councilman Rees' motion prevailed by a vote of 7 to 2, only Councilman McGarry and Tufts voting in the negative.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The Street Superintendent, in the matter of the petition of J. J. Murat, reported that he had the tents referred to in the petition are not in the alley, and that there is but one tent on public property. He had given notice to the parties to move, and they have signified their intention to do so as soon as the weather permits. (Filed.)

Councilman Innes moved that the City Engineer prepare plans for a pipe to drain the ravine on Pink street, west of Beaudry avenue. Carried.

Councilman Rhodes moved that a special committee be appointed to act with the committee of the Board of Supervisors in the matter of cutting down the hill on Boundary street, between Sixth and Seventh streets. Carried, and Councilman Rhodes, Nickell and Tufts were appointed as such committee.

Councilman Alford moved that the protests against the confirmation of the opening of Los Angeles street having been denied, the said report and plat of assessment be confirmed. Carried. The petitions were read and referred to the proper committees.

Councilman Summerland moved that the land occupied by the Southern California Railway Company be leased to that company for a period of three years at an annual rental of $50 per year. The motion prevailed, and the Mayor was instructed to sign on behalf of the city.

THAT HORIZONTAL RAISE.

Councilman Rees moved that certain petitions for the return of taxes paid under the "horizontal raise," now in the hands of the Finance Committee, be taken up and that G. Wiley Wells, Esq., be heard in the defense of the petitioners.

The motion prevailed, and Col. Wells addressed the Council at some length, asking that the city refund the amount, amounting to some $7000 or $8000. He stated that the money had been used by the city, and asked that provision be made at the next tax levy for its repayment.

The City Attorney briefly replied that in his opinion the parties had no legal rights, as they had not under protest. He stated that the money was not paid in anything but a gentlemanly manner by the sharper.

As soon as the German bistro man had taken in the situation and located his "suckers," he secured several telegraph blanks and began operations in earnest.

His first dispatch reads as follows:

MONTICELLO, Jan. 4, 1892.
To Dr. Kurt von Trotha, 111 Los Angeles St., Los Angeles, Cal.—Did you not tell me this morning to first national bank for you, where you can receive your money. I have offered a thousand for Ceres, 30 for the United States, and a telegram answer. Matador better. Henry and Sophie married Sunday. Baby new.

The City Attorney worked up quite a lot of business on the strength of this, and succeeded in gathering in a pocket full of gold.

The next dispatch is a mixture of German and English, which it is almost impossible to translate. It is dated Cassel, January 18, 1892, and addressed to "Dr. Kurt von Trotha, No. 506 Ducommun street, Los Angeles, Cal., and informs Trotha of the death of his uncle, or words to that effect.

On the receipt of this the "doctor" gave out that he is the owner of some fine horses in Iowa, and he informed his admiring friends that he was so much in love with Los Angeles and the surrounding country that he had decided to locate here, and establish a fine stock raising establishment.

He then got out a list of prominent real estate dealer and told him that he would give him $1000 if he would find him the kind of a ranch he wanted, and the poor "sucker" chased all over the country in a vain effort to find the place.

Finally a German with just the thing wanted was found, and the German made several trips to the city and both he and the real estate dealer spent considerable money fixing things up for the great man.

DR. KURT VON TROTHA.

A High-toned German Swindler in the Toils.

How He "Worked" His Los Angeles Fellow-countrymen.

Taken in by the Old Threadbare "Telegram Fake."

The "Doctor" Now Languishing in the Receiving Hospital at the City Prison—His Victims on the Warpath—Feigning Sickness.

One of the smoothest rascals on the Coast is now confined in the receiving hospital at the central police station. While he is a patient he will not be allowed to depart until after he has been given a chance to explain his crooked ways in the Police Court, and unless he can show a clean record he will probably spend some time in jail.

He is a German and speaks broken English, but he is evidently an educated man and has moved in good society at some time during his life as an honest man, but at present he is about as low as a man can sink, notwithstanding the fact that up to last Saturday, when the police took him in charge, he was flying around among the swell Germans of this city and was considered a great rich man.

He goes under the high-sounding name of Dr. Kurt von Trotha, and has given out that he is one of the richest noblemen in Germany or something of that kind

THE LADIES AROUSED.

The Annex Excited Over a Piece of Pickery.

How Mrs. Dr. Wilder Secured the World's Fair Commission.

The Members Refuse to Recognize Her as Their Representative.

Mrs. Matern Had Elected to the Position, Which Had Been Already Filled by Mr. Rose—A Queer Transaction All Round.

"If women were to get the right of suffrage we'd soon find they were capable of quite as much political wire-pulling and corruption as men," exclaimed an exasperated woman yesterday.

The following interesting little episode, which was brought to light yesterday at the meeting of the Ladies' Annex, caused the above remark.

The ladies had a special call meeting last Thursday to determine what they would do in regard to the lunch privilege at the citrus fair, and also to consider the appointment of a lady commissioner to the World's Fair, and thereby hangs a tale.

The commission from this district, L. H. Rose, told Mr. Wiggins some weeks ago to notify the Ladies' Annex that he had decided to select a lady commissioner from their ranks as a compliment to the Annex. Instead of notifying the Annex officially and at once, Mr. Wiggins, it appears, told in private its president, at the same time exacting strict secrecy from her, saying that he would tell her when it was time to spring the question before the Annex and seal the bargain. As his reason for this secrecy he said that the Friday Morning Club, or some other ladies' organization, would undoubtedly make a bid for the plum if it were made public that a Los Angeles lady was to be honored.

The president, placing confidence in Mr. Wiggins' good judgment and knowing that he had the good of the Annex at heart, therefore said nothing about it before the members until last week.

Owing to the storm, there was no regular meeting on Monday, at which time the president had intended to bring the matter before the Annex and give them an opportunity to select their candidate.

The next day she received a note from Mr. Wiggins advising her to call a special meeting for this purpose, and not wait till the next regular meeting. The meeting was therefore called for last Friday, the matter brought up and Mrs. Matern was duly appointed as the choice of the members.

Now comes the second chapter. Mrs. Dr. Wilder, who it will be remembered represented the Annex at the Chicago carnival last year, was present at this meeting and, after the appointment of Mrs. Matern, she presented a letter from Mr. Rose under the date of January 30, in which he acknowledges her (Mrs. Wilder's) acceptance of the office of lady commissioner and duly appoints her as such, stating that her duties will begin May 1. This bewildered the ladies and complicated affairs.

A committee, consisting of the president of the Annex and the lady appointed as its representative, waited upon Mr. Rose the following day for an explanation. It seems that Mrs. Wilder, together with her husband, had incidentally called upon Mr. Rose some weeks ago and the matter of the World's Fair was discussed; afterward Mrs. Wilder had written Mr. Rose a note in which she stated that she was willing to be sanctioned by the Annex. As Mr. Rose had made the proposition to Mr. Wiggins some weeks ago and had had no response from the ladies, he thought they were rather dilatory and indifferent about the matter. The fact, however, which was stated in substance above by the president of the Annex at the meeting yesterday, goes to show that the Annex was in blissful ignorance of the commission which had been bestowed upon them.

In making her straightforward statement to the members yesterday Mrs. Hartwell, in a womanly way, which commanded the respect of every woman present, acknowledged her mistake in withholding from the members, at the instance of an outside matter of such importance, but which she was led to believe would be made known at the proper time and in the proper way, not being aware that what she characterized as "scheming intrigue" was going on behind her back.

Such is the case in a nutshell. As the appointment has already been made by Commissioner Rose, Mrs. Dr. Wilder will be the lady commissioner of this district, unless, as Mr. Rose himself hinted in a subsequent letter to her, she resigns. The ladies refuse to recognize her as their representative; not that they object to her so much personally as, had the matter come before the Annex squarely and fairly, as Mr. Rose intended she might have been honorably appointed as their representative, though many of the members thought the honor had better be conferred on another, as Mrs. Wilder had already been their representative in Chicago once.

The ladies object to much to her going as to the manner of her going. They feel that they have been treated unfairly. Mrs. Wilder, however, who has apparently been scheming for this appointment for 10 some weeks, evidently has no idea of resigning her position.

After Mrs. Hartwell, the president of the Annex, had made her statement yesterday there was a general call for Mr. Wiggins, and a member was dispatched to invite him to appear before the Annex and explain, but he could not be found.

Meanwhile developments are anxiously awaited.

DR. MARY WOOD ALLEN.

An instructive lecture at Immanuel Church Sunday evening.

The lecture by Dr. Mary Wood Allen at Immanuel Church Sunday evening was very well attended, and proved quite an intellectual treat. The subject, "The Beatific Vision," expresses the thought of the text, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Many addresses on social purity are, in fact, addresses on social impurity.

But Dr. Allen's lecture was true to its title. It was a most impressive and tender appeal for that purity of life and thought which produce the truest manhood and womanhood. It dwelt upon the need of right instruction for the young by their proper teachers, their parents, claiming that the child has a right to demand information concerning himself and his own powers from those to whom he owes life.

Dr. Allen made a strong point against the sentimentality that is instilled and fostered in the minds, even of the very young, by teaching them to regard each other as lovers and sweethearts, making a free and friendly comradeship impossible and resulting in flirtations and, perhaps, even in immorality. Her picture of the poor girl, betrayed and forsaken, in an original poem, "The Heart that Dares not Sing," was beautiful and touching.

The lecture closed with a description of the work of the White Cross and White Shield and a vision of what they were to do for the world.

No one could listen to this lecture without feeling aspirations toward a nobler and a purer life. The beauty, delicacy and chasteness of language was most remarkable, but the truth lost none of its force because of its manner of presentation.

In listening the auditors felt dawning in their hearts a renewed reverence for themselves as creations of God's power, and were moved to renewed efforts to obtain that reward of inward purity, the beatific vision, the sight of God.

The subject of social purity is one difficult to handle in a public address, but the deep interest on the faces of all present and their words of hearty approval were sufficient indication that Dr. Allen has the womanly intuition, the delicate tact and pure heart that makes her a worthy apostle of purity.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

AN EASTERN BRIDE ARRIVES.

Judge R. A. Ling arrived in the city Sunday evening accompanied by his bride, and was yesterday receiving the congratulations of his Los Angeles friends.

The bride, Miss Amelia Olmsted, was a resident of East Hartford, Ct., and the Gazette of that city publishes an elaborate account of the wedding in its issue of January 28. The ceremony took place in the First Congregational Church, and was witnessed by a large and fashionable throng, as the bride's parents are numbered among the aristocracy of the town. The bride's gown was of soft, light-tanned broadcloth, the back hanging in heavy folds from the waist. The entire garment was beautifully trimmed with seal skin and Russian embroidery, with hat to match. The waist was of black Russian embroidery caught at the neck with a bunch of beautiful diamonds and emeralds, a gift of the groom. This elegant dress was most becoming to the bride and was greatly admired.

All the relatives at the church went directly to the house, where Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ling, received from 5 o'clock to 8.

The whole wedding was a blaze of light. The attire was thrown open, and the beautiful decorations, with potted plants and cut roses here and there, formed a most inviting retreat from the crowded parlors. The refreshment room was a very pretty sight, the tables being decorated with elegant china, silverware and cut glass. The luncheon was particularly choice and was served in the most dainty manner by the Messrs. Besse, the famous State caterers.

The wedding gifts were exhibited on the second floor, and the room was quite filled with over a hundred elegant and costly presents.

After a trip to Washington and a return for a few days to East Hartford Judge and Mrs. Ling came directly to Los Angeles.

IT IS A FRIDAY MORNING CLUB! An exchange says: The young ladies of Colma have an A. M. Club, the mysterious initials representing the words "anti-man." Prizes were recently offered for the most appropriate definition of the word "man." The first prize was awarded to the sweet little creature who evolved this: "Man—a creature made in the likeness of his Creator, yet with less fortitude than a woman and less fidelity than a dog." The second prize was awarded to the girl who pronounced this: "Man is an animal formed in the image of his Creator, but having all of the evil qualities generally attributed to his Satanic majesty. His face and form may be handsome, his smile sweet and winning, but beneath this fair exterior he hides a heart as black and diabolical for woman to conceive of. His greatest delight is in destroying the happiness of woman. What name could better suit such a wretch than devil? There were thirteen other definitions of the same tenor, and one is forced to wonder what kind of men they have up in Colma, anyhow. Or may not one be pardoned for just suggesting that there is a faint, lingering sort of possibility that the women themselves may be a trifle to blame for producing such a state of affairs, as is suggested by these interesting definitions?

A LITTLE WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein gave an elegant reception Sunday evening in celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary. The handsome residence of their home, No. 428 Temple street, were beautifully decorated with laurel, roses and yellow marigolds, mingled with graceful sprays of smilax. The elegant presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein completely filled the upper room where they were displayed. Dancing, music and songs entertained the guests and a sumptuous supper was served. It was not until long after midnight that the guests uttered their final congratulations and said adieu to the pleasant host and hostess.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Strassburger have returned from their wedding trip and are home to their friends at No. 1019 South Olive street.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Francis have returned from their wedding trip and are at the Dominguez residence, on South Main street, where they will be glad to receive their many friends.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

The Special Car of Andrew Carnegie's Party—General Notes.

It is said that J. C. Stubbs, third vice-president of the Southern Pacific, and W. A. Bissell, general freight and passenger agent of the Atlantic and Pacific, charged J. S. Leeds with having made a report about the Wall Street to take the action he did at the New York meeting when he demanded the discharge of both officials.

President John King, of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad, is now in San Francisco and is expected to arrive here with his private car in a few days.

J. F. McCarthy, general agent of the Wabash at San Francisco, came down to Los Angeles yesterday to get in out of the wet.

The Pullman Palace Car Company is making special arrangements to insure a most comfortable trip across the continent for Andrew Carnegie, Sir Edwin Arnold and Andrew P. White, who will arrive on this coast in about ten days. A magnificent hotel, the finest ever built by Pullman, will be placed at the disposal of the party and no luxury will be omitted that can be provided for the distinguished travelers.

A DESTITUTE FAMILY.

A Case at the Arcade Depot That Should be Looked After.

There is a case of destitution at the Arcade depot which should receive the immediate attention of the charitable disposed. Saturday night there arrived on the Southern Pacific train a man and his wife and seven children. The family are from Texas, and the children range in age from seven years to an infant in arms, and their condition is really pitiable, as they are absolutely without means. The man is able-bodied and willing to work at anything he can find to do, and spent all of yesterday in search of employment, but without success. The family were allowed to sleep in the waiting-room and were supplied with food yesterday by the railroad people. Any assistance given will be appreciated by these people, as they appear to be deserving.

Suicide of Harry Haskins at Alhambra.

The Publication in "The Times" Caused a Decided Sensation.

What Pasadenians Think of Mr. Blaine's Withdrawal.

Interviews With Leading Citizens—The McKinley Sentiment Among the Young Men—Death of an Estimable Young Lady.

[Branch office, No. 50 East Colorado street, where news is received and orders for THE TIMES are received.]

The suicide of Harry Haskins at Alhambra, Sunday night, an account of which appeared in yesterday's TIMES, caused a sensation in town, as he was an old resident, had many friends, and bore the reputation of being a whole-souled young man.

It appears that Haskins started for Alhambra Sunday forenoon with Frank McKelvey, of the fire department. They took the car down to the Raymond and then walked on to Alhambra, Haskins firing at stakes, etc., as he was going.

The cause of his tragic death is said to have been largely due to his use of liquor, although it is said that he had not taken any in his accounts with hardware dealers, both here and in Los Angeles.

Haskins was not a member of the Masonic lodge here as stated in the TIMES, but was formerly an Odd Fellow. Of late, however, he had not belonged to any society.

An inquest was held over the remains at Alhambra yesterday afternoon, and the verdict of the jury was that deceased died by his own hand, assigning no cause.

The body was brought to Lippincott's morgue last evening. The time for the funeral has not been set.

BLAINE'S WITHDRAWAL. It is but natural in a city like Pasadena, where the Democracy is still a few years ago, that a withdrawal from the Presidential race of a man of Blaine's prominence should cause a great deal of talk in Republican circles, and such was the case yesterday.

Times reporter sought out several prominent members of the party and asked for an expression of opinion on the subject. Blaine's withdrawal has been in the lead here as a candidate for President.

Mr. Harrison and McKinley have the honors equally divided; the former more so with the older members of the party, and the latter with the younger. The following are some of the opinions expressed:

Mr. Harrison. I do not think that Blaine ever intended to antagonize Harrison, and he feels as if he was called upon to express himself. He no doubt has given up all hope of ever attaining the presidency. He enjoys the reputation of being the greatest living American. As to my choice, I hardly can decide as between Harrison and McKinley.

Mr. McKinley. I am sorry to hear of Blaine's withdrawal. He stands before me in the light of a great man. He has been a great man. He has been a great man. He has been a great man.

Mr. Harrison. I am sorry to hear of Blaine's withdrawal. He stands before me in the light of a great man. He has been a great man. He has been a great man. He has been a great man.

Lot C. Mooney in Jail in Tulare County.

A Former Resident of Santa Ana in a Very Awkward Position.

A Young Wife and Her Baby Deserted by the Husband.

The Top-of-war from a Religious Point—An Interesting Sermon Sunday Evening by Rev. Mr. Jackson—News in Brief.

SANTA ANA.

[Branch office at Briggs' new stand, corner Fourth and West streets, where subscriptions and advertisements are taken.]

Lot C. Mooney is languishing in the Hanford, Tulare county, jail on a charge that is likely to send him to Folsom or San Quentin for a term of years. This bit of information will be a surprise to the people of Orange county and the many friends and acquaintances of the man.

Mooney left Santa Ana Saturday, January 30, claiming at the time that he was going to San Francisco on a business trip and that he would return in a few days, but subsequent events go to prove that he was taking a final farewell of his young wife and three-month-old baby and that he was about to embark for parts unknown.

When he had gone as far as Hanford he evidently thought he was far enough away to conceal his identity and therefore plans were laid to make a "raid" that he might proceed on his journey to pasture green in a style which would be a credit to his former association of Los Angeles and ascertain that they had been victims of fraud.

Mooney was arrested before he could leave town, and a few dollars of the amount borrowed was recovered.

A letter from Mooney has been received in this city in which he asks for assistance and in which he explains himself as a victim of a crime committed. His career in Santa Ana has been short, but in that time he has succeeded in bringing sorrow and disgrace upon one of the oldest and best-known families in the valley.

Everybody should attend the meeting of the Board of Trade this afternoon to hear the proposition of the gentleman who is expected to make on the subject of furnishing water to this section from the Antelope Valley.

The convocation of the Episcopal Church for Southern California will be held in All Saints church tomorrow. Delegates from the various parishes and missions of the different counties of this section of the State will be present.

The funeral of Carlisle yesterday afternoon, tendered by the ladies of the W.C.T.U. to Dr. Mary Wood Allen, Miss Mary Allen West and Mrs. Judge Stedman.

The bay windows of the parlor contained potted plants, palms and primroses, and made a beautiful appearance.

[Branch office, No. 713 State street, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.]

The postoffice inspector has posted a notice calling for sealed proposals for the lease for five years of a building suitable for the postoffice. The present building is in need of repairs, and the inspector is constantly increasing amount of mail coming into Santa Barbara. It is also poorly heated and ventilated, and the health of the employees demands a more healthful place.

The building at present occupied by the postoffice is a small one-story building, and it is proposed to build a new one of two and one-half stories, the rent being $1 per year.

THE SALVATION ARMY IN TROUBLE. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Capt. Van Dyke, of the Salvation Army, charging him with obstructing the State law in regard to blockading the streets.

He will be up before Judge Wheaton today. The army, until lately, have taken a quiet street for their open-air meetings, but for the past few weeks they have been holding forth in front of the Commercial Hotel, disturbing the guests, some of whom are ill.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaren of Chicago are in the city. I. T. Parsons, a traveling man of Chicago, is in the city. Mrs. L. E. Estelle of San Francisco is at the San Marcos.

The trial of Charles Sattler for grand larceny is set for today in Department Two, but as Judge Campbell has a civil suit on hand it will probably be transferred to Judge Otis' court. Charles was advised by his lawyer to plead guilty in the case, as he and William both testified that they stole the raisins and that their brother Fred was not there when the trial of the latter was in progress. But as Fred was convicted in spite of their testimony, Charles and William are determined to fight for liberty.

DOOMED TO DARKNESS. The city is without gas, and the electric lights cannot be depended upon. Many citizens have no provision for using coal oil and so are in a pretty fix.

THE COURTS.

Another Victory for Receiver I. H. Polk.

His Action in the San Bernardino Paving Sustained.

Supreme Court Decision Yesterday Received for Filing.

The Herald Allowed to File an Amended Demurrer in Its Lottery Case—Those Tahiti Orange Trees—Cases Set for Trial—Notes.

Judge Ross in the United States Circuit Court yesterday morning denied the application of the city of San Bernardino for an order directing Receiver Polk of the Southern California Motor Road Company to pay out a certain sum for the grading of part of E street in said city, in accordance with a lengthy opinion filed therein.

Judge Ross takes the position that as the receiver had complied with the order of the City Trustees of San Bernardino to remove the objectionable rails complained of, which order had been given without any authority in law, they had no cause for complaint, and as expensive changes had been ordered, which in case of a non-paying road was worse than confiscation, they had no cause in equity, for which reasons the application is denied.

SUPREME COURT OPINION.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Francis Underhill (respondent) vs. the Santa Barbara Land, Building and Improvement Company and Martha S. Parker (appellants), affirming the judgment and order appealed from in the Superior Court of Santa Barbara county, was received for filing in this city by Deputy Clerk Ashmore yesterday. This action was brought to foreclose two mortgages on real property of the corporation, alleged to have been executed by defendant to Gorham & Co., and by them assigned to plaintiff. Mrs. Barker was made a defendant on the ground that she held a subsequent mortgage on the same property, and resulted in judgment for plaintiff ordering a sale of the mortgaged property, in preference to that of Mrs. Barker.

Ayers, proprietors of the Herald, charged with violating the anti-lottery laws, asked and obtained leave to file an amended demurrer, which matter was set for hearing on Monday next.

THOSE TAHITI ORANGE TREES.

In Department Six yesterday afternoon Judge McKinley listened to the argument in the case against the Messers vs. to condemn the Tahitian orange trees they imported as a nuisance. RESTAURANT MAN ROBBED.

An Employee's Systematic Plan of Petty Theft.

For some weeks past Mr. Schafer, who runs the "rotisserie" on Franklin street, has noticed that his liquors, cigars, groceries and other supplies that are used in his business disappeared much more rapidly than they should. There was no large loss in any particular line, but a general shrinkage, and he finally came to the conclusion that either his help had abnormal appetites or that they were making away with the provisions, and he instituted a watch. There was but one man who had a key to the place besides himself, and the watch was a high-washer named Fleischman, an elderly man who had always been regarded as above suspicion. The old fellow finally became so bold that he carried on his petty stealing during the day, and on his coming in suddenly on one occasion Mr. Schafer detected him in the act of getting away with a bottle of whisky. He said nothing, however, but hired a private detective and instituted a systematic watch. For a few days nothing was missed, and then one night the old man was seen to go into the place after it had closed, help himself to cigars from the various boxes, fill a bottle or two with whisky, load his pockets with fruit, etc., after which he left the restaurant and started home. The detective had been watching him from across the street, and promptly held him up. He was taken to his room, where he was searched, and the various articles found on his person. Fleischman, seeing that he had been caught in the act, confessed everything and begged for mercy, offering to make everything good. His offer was accepted, and he turned to Schafer $70 and paid the detective, after which he was released.

Scholar, of course, does not know how much he lost, as the stealing extended over several months, but thinks it is considerably over a hundred dollars. The old man played his game very cleverly, never taking enough of any one article at a time to make it noticeable, and but for the accidental discovery of the whisky bottle by Schafer might have continued indefinitely.

Police Clerk Kinsey is Mad.

Yesterday afternoon a prominent legal gentleman had business in the Police Court, and when he left the room he was noticed to pick up a valuable steel engraving that Clerk Kinsey had just purchased and walk off with it.

Mr. Kinsey thinks the "appropriation" may have been committed in a fit of absent-mindedness, but he says if the engraving is not promptly returned he will issue a warrant and have the absent-minded one brought into court.

As a rule Clerk Kinsey is the best-natured man in the city, but he has been on the warpath since the gold watch theft under his very nose and he proposes to get even with somebody.
